Warranty:

Finished Products: Seller liability under this warranty is limited to the repair or replacement of any unit which proves to be defective in material or workmanship under normal use and service provided the unit is returned to ACI Communications shipping point within one year from the date of shipment. ACI Communications will in no case be responsible for special or consequential damages including but not limited to cost of removal or reinstallation of units. ACI Communications makes no warranty of merchantability or suitability for a particular purpose. This warranty does not extend to products damaged through misuse, abuse, incorrect installation, lightning or other acts of God.

Components: ACI Communications warrants components for material, workmanship and performance for 90 days* from date of shipment. This warranty does not extend to components damaged through misuse, abuse, incorrect installation, power surges, lightning or water damage. Seller will accept components, which do not meet minimum published specifications. Seller will not accept return of components incorrectly shipped (due to customer or seller error), if the incorrect components have already been installed and subsequently removed from equipment.

If the customer intends to store items before use, it is the customer's responsibility to ensure proper operation upon incoming inspection. ACI Communications will not extend the warranty period beyond 90 days regardless of customer's immediate or delayed use.*

This warranty is in lieu of all other warranties expressed or implied.

Return Of Goods: Merchandise returns will not be accepted without advance approval or a return authorization number from ACI Communications obtained through Customer Service. Returned merchandise may be subject to a restocking charge plus transportation charge. The customer may be charged depending on returned quantities.

Replacement for Returned Goods: No credit or replacement will be issued until components and/or products are returned to ACI Communications for evaluation. Components and/or products that are evaluated by ACI Communications and found not to be defective will be returned to the customer with a copy of the test results.

Price and Terms Subject to Change Without Notice.

Customer must report any discrepancies about shipment to ACI Communications within 10 days of receipt. Components and/or finished products are considered the property of the customer upon acceptance by customer's incoming inspection department.
